NB: Sufficiency of the Quote

The supplier shall be deemed to have satisfied him/herself before quoting as to the correctness and sufficiency of his/her quote for the Works and prices he/she has stated in the Schedules/quotation which rates and prices shall cover all his/her obligations under the contract/RFQ and all matters and things necessary for the proper completion of the Works

"If the Bidder withdraws his/her quotation at the time of Purchase Order submission, or fails to fulfil the contract when called upon to do so, the SAMRC may, without prejudice to its other rights, agree to the withdrawal of the tender or cancel the contract/purchase order that may have been entered into between the Bidder and the SAMRC. The Bidder shall then pay to the SAMRC any additional expense incurred by the SAMRC having either to accept any less favourable bid or, if new quotations have to be invited, the additional expenditure incurred by the invitation of new bidders and by the subsequent acceptance or any less favourable bid. The SAMRC shall also have the right to recover such additional expenditure by setting it off against moneys which may be due or become due to the Bidder under this or any other tender or contract or against any (performance) guarantee or deposit that may have been furnished by the Bidder or on its behalf for the due fulfillment of this or any other bid or contract and pending the ascertainment of the amount of such additional expenditure to retain such moneys, guarantee or deposit as security for any loss the SAMRC may sustain by reason of the Bidder's default."

Where products requested fall under local content regulation, please note that those suppliers who do not meet the minimum local content threshold will not be considered.
